

Fiona Barraclough
Foundation Governor (Lichfield Diocese)

Term of Office: 1 September 2015 - 31 August 2019
Committee: Buildings, Health & Safety and Safeguarding

My name is Fiona Barraclough and I am a Foundation Governor for the Diocese of Lichfield. I have 2 children, my daughter is in Y9 at Thomas Telford School, and my son is in Y8 at HTA.

I am employed by Shropshire Council as a Specialist Language Teacher, working with KS1 pupils with severe speech and language impairment. I travel around Shropshire teaching the children in their own schools.

My work background has always been within SEND, I have a BA (Hons) in severe learning difficulties, and have taught in a number of special schools in Shropshire and the South of England.

Before I had my children I was Deputy Headteacher at Severndale Specialist School in Shrewsbury.

I play an active role in the life of St Peter's Church in Priorslee, I am on the PCC, and a team leader for Family Praise and Messy Church.

As a Governor of HTA I am on the SEND committee, and the Safeguarding committee.
