

Theme: Authority Of Christ

There are many questions being asked of the Government and those in positions of authority. As they say, it comes with the territory. When, like Christ, you hold lives in your hand, have the ability to heal and the authority to teach others new ways then somebody, somewhere will question your motives and your actions.

This week we focus on the authority of Christ. Where politicians are granted their authority and position by the people and other humans, Christ has His direct from God. When Christ speaks, God speaks. Christ is the window to God. He has been granted the authority to teach us a new way that will bring us closer to our Father in heaven.

[Mr Doust]

Pope Francis:

The Lord has redeemed all of us, all of us, with the Blood of Christ: all of us, not just Catholics. Everyone! 'Father, the atheists?' Even the atheists. Everyone! And this Blood makes us children of God of the first class! We are created children in the likeness of God and the Blood of Christ has redeemed us all! And we all have a duty to do good.

And this commandment for everyone to do good, I think, is a beautiful path towards peace. If we, each doing our own part, if we do good to others, if we meet there, doing good, and we go slowly, gently, little by little, we will make that culture of encounter: we need that so much. We must meet one another doing good. 'But I don't believe, Father, I am an atheist!' But do good: we will meet one another there."

Prayer:

I am a child of God and his Holy Spirit dwells in me to have victory in every situation. Therefore, I command in the name of Jesus Christ that every stronghold of the enemy against me must be destroyed! I reject wrongdoing and wish it cast out of my life.

By the authority of Jesus Christ, I remove every root of sickness, poverty, failure, and any other negative activity from my life. I replace all evil with goodness. I convert sickness to good health; poverty change to riches, and failure change to success.

My testimony of victory shall remain and abide from now on and forever more!

Amen.
