

End of Year Staff Liturgy

Introduction [Angus Neal]:

Welcome to our staff prayer service to mark the end of the school year. The end of the school year means different things to each of us. Some of us will be moving on to new places, others to new responsibilities. Whether summer finds us working, resting, travelling or studying, in many ways it is a kind of late spring, signalling the end of one season, and emergence of something new.

Let us take this time to reflect on the blessings of this school year, to give thanks, and to invite our gracious God to continue with us as we journey forth through the changes that summer will bring.

Let us begin, marking ourselves with the sign through which all things have been made new: In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen

Opening Prayer [Julia Smith]:

Lord God, as we ponder the blessings and challenges of this past year, grant us the serenity of your Spirit and openness of heart to the wonders you have done in us and will continue do in faithfulness to us, your children. We make this prayer to you through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Reading [Jacqui Fletcher]:

See, I am doing something new!
Now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?
In the desert I make a way, in the wasteland, rivers.
Wild beasts honour me, jackals and ostriches,
For I put water in the desert and rivers in the wasteland for my chosen people to drink,
The people I formed for myself,
That they might announce my praise.

The word of the Lord.

All:        Thanks be to God.

All:

When we live by faith, every ending is the beginning of something new.
Every thing points beyond itself to a Presence without and within;
Every person becomes sacrament;
Every colleague, a companion on life's pilgrimage.

When we live by faith, time becomes a gift,
And seasons, rivers of grace:
Refining and re-creating us to fullness of life.

See, God is doing something new!
Now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?
Your work is an icon of God's tireless labours,
To build up what is just,
To strengthen the faltering spirit
To fire the imagination with endless possibilities
For learning, for growing,
For becoming, for being in love.

See, I am doing something new!
Now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?

See...

Gospel Reading [Sam Hewlett-Lloyd]:

A reading from the Gospel according to Mark

The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. He said to them, “Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while.” For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel Reflection [Jim Doust]:

Please take a moment and in light of God’s word and your experience this year, to reflect and share, if you wish, something that you are grateful for having received or been part of in our school community.

Temperance is reason's girdle and passion's bridle, the strength of the soul and the foundation of virtue.

Jeremy Taylor

Closing Prayer [Jim Doust]:

Lord, we give you thanks for calling us to serve this Christian school community. By the power of your Holy Spirit, may the seeds of the Gospel you have planted in hearts and called us to water in our school continue to grow.

Grant us a peaceful and restful summer, that we might be ready to respond with joy to your ongoing call to serve one another in Christ, in whom you make all things new.

We make this prayer to you in his name.

All:      Amen

And may almighty God bless us, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

All:      Amen
