

A huge thank you form the History department to all the students who entered this years History Eggs competition. All those who took part have now been awarded 5 achievement points (a commendation from Mrs Green).

See below for our winner and runners up. The prizes will be awarded on Friday.

Runners up!

